Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Iraqi Diplomacy, Constitutional Timelines, Public over Individual Interests During Foreign Minister Meeting

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, underscored the importance of strengthening Iraqi diplomacy, adhering to constitutional timelines, and prioritizing public interest during a meeting with Foreign Minister DrSayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Iraqi Diplomacy, Constitutional Timelines, Public over Individual Interests During Foreign Minister Meeting

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, underscored the importance of strengthening Iraqi diplomacy, adhering to constitutional timelines, and prioritizing public interest during a meeting with Foreign Minister Dr. Fuad Hussein.

H.E. reaffirmed that the Electoral Commission and the judiciary bear a serious responsibility to thoroughly review appeals and complaints submitted by candidates and political powers, in order to present a clear and credible image of democracy in Iraq. H.E. also emphasized the need for all parties to pursue their rights through legal and peaceful means, warning that political deadlock would leave everyone at a loss. H.E. urged all sides to make concessions for the sake of Iraq and its people, who look to elections as a pathway to improving service delivery and living conditions.. Fuad Hussein.

H.E. reaffirmed that the Electoral Commission and the judiciary bear a serious responsibility to thoroughly review appeals and complaints submitted by candidates and political powers, in order to present a clear and credible image of democracy in Iraq. H.E. also emphasized the need for all parties to pursue their rights through legal and peaceful means, warning that political deadlock would leave everyone at a loss. H.E. urged all sides to make concessions for the sake of Iraq and its people, who look to elections as a pathway to improving service delivery and living conditions.