Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Immortalizing Martyrs Sacrifices, Including Their Stories in School Curricula

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the head of the Martyrs Foundation Mr. Abdulilah Al-Naili, and discussed with him the rights of martyrs' families and simplifying procedures for them, calling for immortalizing the stories of martyrs and including them in school curricula.

H.E. affirmed the importance of introducing automation and e-governance into administrative transactions, calling for resolving them more quickly, so that the families of martyrs can enjoy their rights, which are owed to them by the state and its institutions.
