Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses to Resolve Remaining Property Claims, Redress Citizens Harmed by Former Regime

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Head of the Property Claims Commission, Judge Alaa Al-Saadi, and the Commission's senior staff, and listened to a briefing on its achievements and its contribution to recovering citizens' rights usurped during the era of the defunct regime, while H.E. stressed resolving the remaining claims and redressing those harmed.

H.E. explained that Iraqis were harmed by the former regime and that redressing them is a responsibility borne by all state institutions, affirming the importance of the Property Claims Commission as one of the country's transitional justice institutions.
