Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Christian Component is a Genuine Partner in Building Iraq, We Call to Preserve Diversity, People Return to Homeland

His Eminence Sayyid Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received the Sawyana parliamentary bloc headed by Mr. Kaldo Ramzi, commending the role of the Christian component in enriching Iraqi culture, and renewing his call to preserve Iraqi diversity and move it toward a phase of managing diversity, transforming the components into bridges of communication between Iraq and the peoples of the region and the world.

H.E. renewed his call for Christians to return voluntarily to the country and contribute to its building and reconstruction, noting that Iraq belongs to everyone with all its components, spectrums, and ethnicities, commending the role of the members of this component in confronting .Daesh terrorism